Some fifteen years ago my brother in law and I decided to purchase a large Manor House for our joint occupation. This necessitated a joint Mortgage which at that time was extremely rare. Add to that the fact that we both had our own businesses and the potential for complications on Tax, VAT and accounting was enormous.

We were recommended to consult Ashok Varma of Avar and company. This we did and, much to our relief, they made light work of the situation.

The business and the Manor House were sold some six years later and again we were grateful for the advice that we received from Avar + Co.

Since that time Ashok and I have become personal friends but that does not detract from the enormous help that he has given us over the years, for which we are truly grateful.

Probably the best recommendation that I can give is that the refunds received from I.R. have always been greater than Avar's fees!

Yours faithfully
